REQUEST FOR REFUND OF FEES

SIR:

In a telephone call on May 8, 2002 with the supervisor of the Customer Service Center (a woman named Monica), the undersigned was informed that the two Notices of Incomplete Reply dated March 18, 2002 and April 29, 2002 were erroneously issued by the U.S. Patent Office.

Applicant's response to the erroneous March 18, 2002 Notice of Incomplete Reply required the payment of a fee of $920 for a 3-month extension of time. Since applicants should not have had to file any response (because the Notice was issued erroneously), applicants also should not have had to pay the $920 fee for an extension of time.
